Alexander's

Alex Miller, Owner

Dear Business Owners/Managers,

As a business owner myself I understand that although the economy is making everyone's budget tighter, being able to put on a professional event for your customers and staff is essential for that lasting great impression of your company. You will find that both myself and my staff will do our best to give you what you need at a price that you can afford. Whether you need a seminar/meeting luncheon for 40, a customer appreciation party for 400 or a fundraising event for your special charity, Alexander's will give you an evening you'll never forget! You will get a unique location, experienced staff and an innovative and exquisite tasting menu that is both within your budget and have your customers raving about you for months. Call today to let our Business Event Specialist schedule your facility tour and help you customize your next business event today!

Here are what some of our satisfied business customers have to say:

"The "hands on" approach and attention to detail were very much appreciated. You really run a first class operation and make extra efforts to make us feel welcome"

Ken Nicholls, Yale High School Principal

"Thank you for all of your generosity in regards to hosting our "Fall Rally" Campaign party. The hall was beautiful and the food was excellent. People were and are still talking about the delicious food."

Tim & Amy Donnellon, Sheriff

"Many of my Rotary members complimented on the fabulous job Alexander's did with the food which helped make our annual meeting a success."

John Silveri, President of Rotary Club
